1. FEMS Creating an Installer Account

You can easily create an installer account for FENECON Online Monitoring yourself. To do this, follow the steps below:

Step 1:

"FEMS Login" button on the FENECON website (<https://fenecon.de/>).

Step 2:

In the login window of FENECON Online Monitoring (<https://portal.fenecon.de/login>) click on "Create account".

2. Contact

Step 3:

Enter all the required data under "Installer".

The screenshot shows a web form titled "Account anlegen" with a close button (X) in the top right corner. Below the title, there are two tabs: "INSTALLATEUR" and "BENUTZER". A red arrow points to the "INSTALLATEUR" tab. Below the tabs, there is a text input field labeled "Firmenname*".

Step 4:

Check all entries, confirm the entry in the installer directory in addition to the privacy policy and the GTC and then click on "Create".

Step 5:

Log in to FENECON Online Monitoring using the specified email and password from the registration process.
